The outside steps to the roof were put there so this cottage's first owner, Dr. Henry Elson (an astronomer) had easy access to his rooftop telescope. * Theologian, Elson Ruff got his first name to honor this family relationship * This and Ruth Schöffner's cottage (built by Tygart) have thickest walls on site

FIRST OWNER- Dr Henry W Elson, Delma and Paul Elson
Dr Elson loved leading nature hikes in early years. This was one to Deer Park in 1927.

Only identified hikers are Fred Flothmeier (man with tie right rear) and Henry Elson reclining at front.

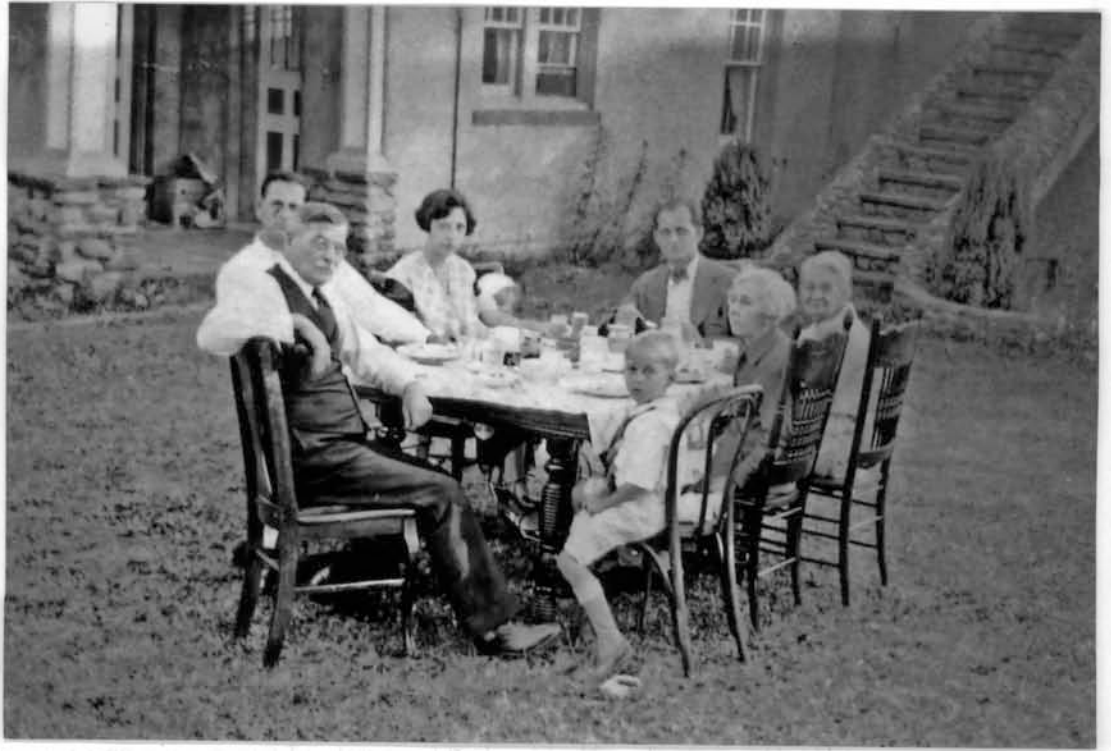

FIRST OWNER

The Elson family fortunately built their cottage in 1928 prior to the stock market crash.

The Elson Cottage had steps to a flat roof where Henry Sr kept his telescope for enjoyment of astronomy.

This family outdoor picnic @ 1929 included from left: Henry W. Elson, unknown, Adele Elson with young daughter Marie Adele, Win Elson two unknown women relatives and Paul, Jr

Delma Elson relaxes with her dad Henry W Elson on the cottage porch in the 1940's or 1950's.

This 1930's photo shows affection between Paul Jr. and grandpa, Henry W. Elson also pictures their auto. The then asphalt highway passed much closer to their front door than 191 does today.

#5 OWNER - KNABE FAMILY

Kristie Knabe

FIRST OWNER: Rev. H.P.C. Cressman

Son, Luther was a popular teen and early staff person at P.F.

SECOND OWNER: Frank and Elsie Hersh

THIRD OWNER: John and Ruth Schaffner

John Schaffner's early and untimely death robbed P.F. of an enthusiastic advocate, leader and worker.

Ruth Schaffner was one of the first members to live year-round on Paradise Falls property. Though alone, she was loved through those years ( ) with visits to Sarah in Yellow Knife, Sarah's vacation weeks here, at P.F. and twice daily E mails

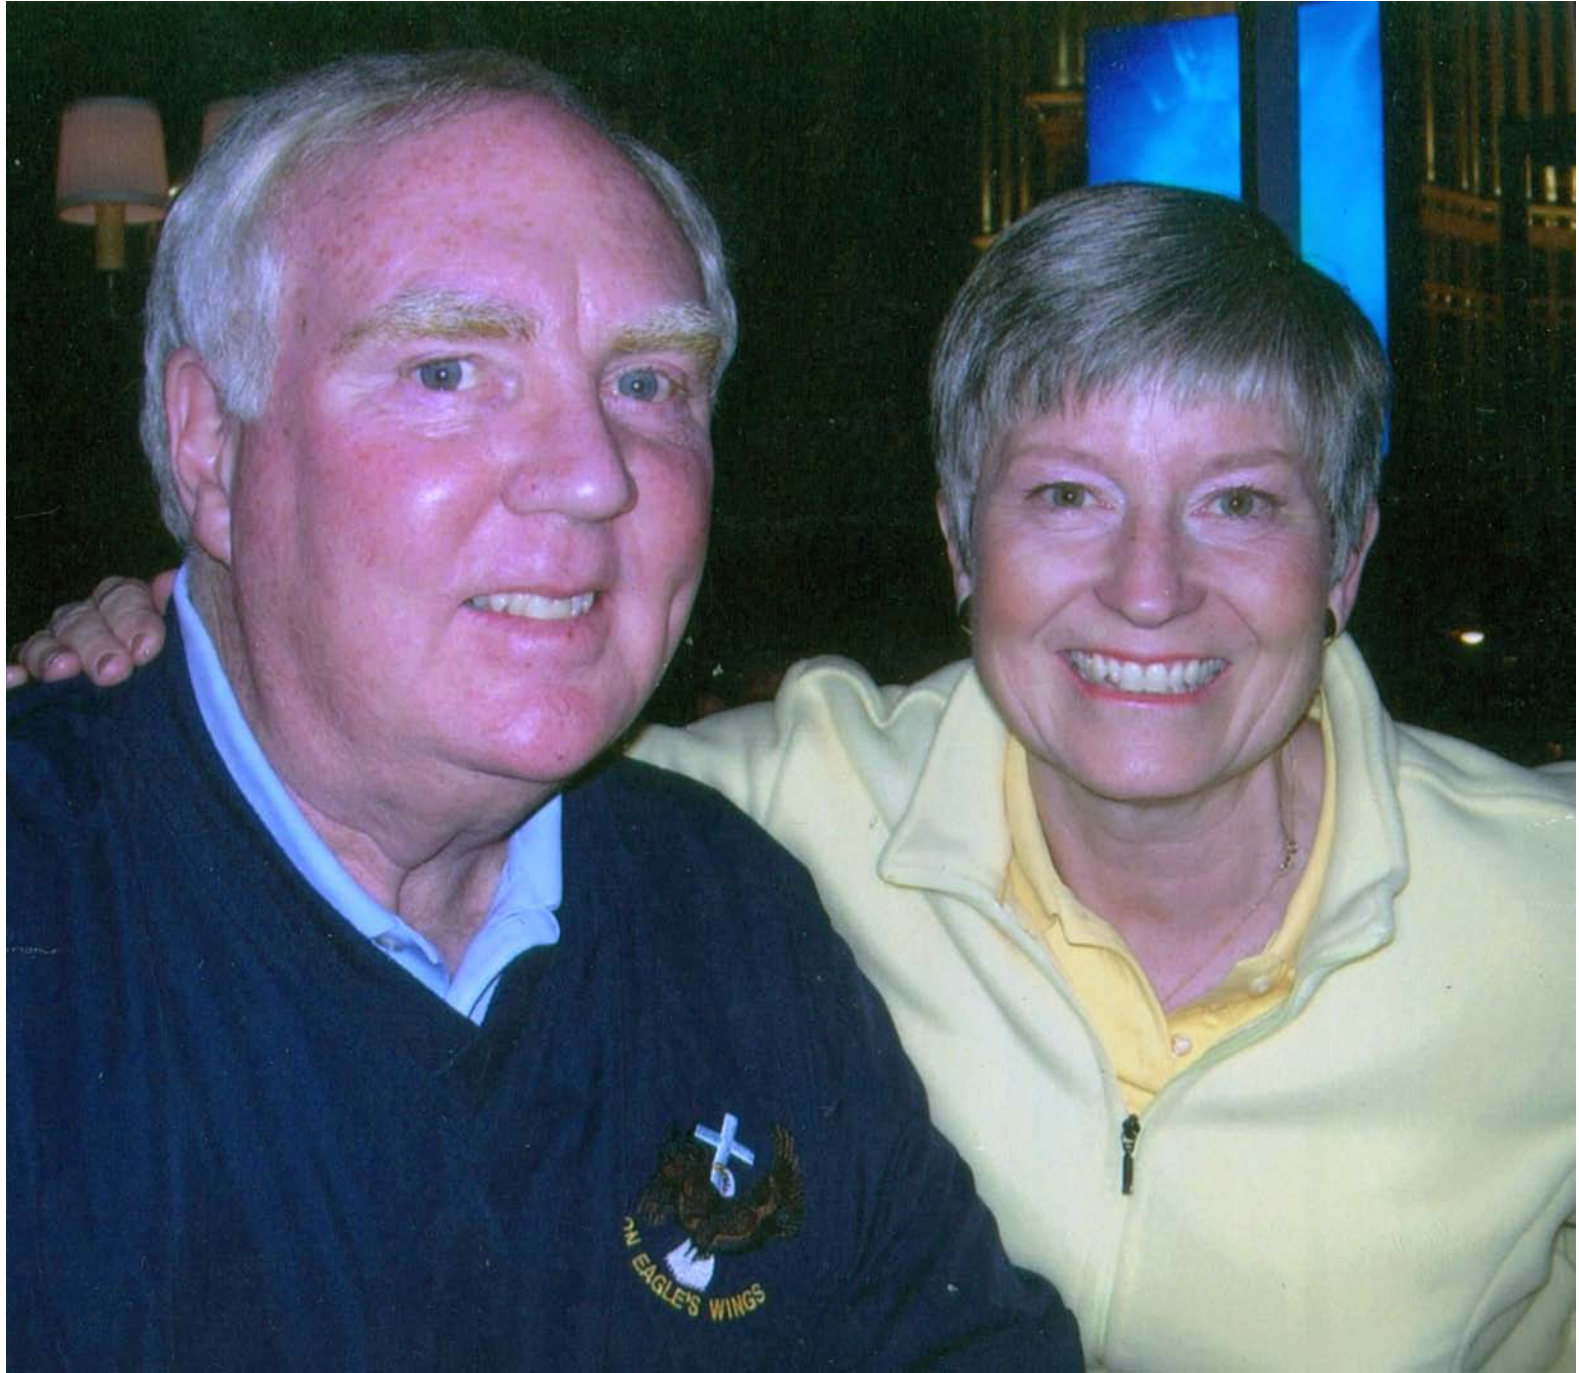

Everyone at P.F. admired Ruth's gentle ways, strong faith and the compassionate caregiving ministry she shared with so many. Fellow P.F. friends are glad to know that she passed away quickly and painlessly in her beloved cottage, very close to where John died 40 years previous. She was packed to visit Sarah, but the reunion with John in Heaven was a good substitute

Ruth Schaffner, pictured here with dear daughter, Sarah, has been coming to R.F. since                      when her grandfather, Erwin Moyer was Treasurer and Manager from 1930-1946! She is an excellent historical resource person with stays in many cottages. See Hendricks pages for Moyer-Beers-Schaffner family tree and info.

A generous donation from first owner Bertha Crawford put the Paradise Falls lake on Paradise Creek instead of on Cranberry Ck.

#3 OWNERS- BELL, Marcia and Robert

FIRST OWNER - Bertha Crawford

This P.F. lover provided the money to build the lake on Paradise Creek when the Cranberry Creek damming became unfeasible (not enough water). She wanted it near her cottage and when completed she opened that cottage to Progressive Dinners and the grounds to weekly Vesper Sunday Services. See "Activities" Book Religious section for Vesper photos. Her wishing well still remains.

Bertha was also responsible for yearly Dress Up Concerts featured noted artists like Pina LaCorte. See "Activities"

This stone cross from the 1950's outdoor Vesper altar was found at the left side of the cottage, and "righted" by the Bells.

THIS PRE-EXISTING BARN WAS OWNED BY JAMES HEYDT AND HIS FAMILY, INCLUDING HAROLD HEYDT. Carolyn Pohl, one of Harold's 5 daughters remembers animals sheltered in its lower level and how rocky and marshy the pasture was that sloped down to the stream

See "Farms, Deeds, Censuses" Binder → Heydt house

FOURTH OWNER: Mrs Frank Schmidt

← Son, Frank Schmidt, also was P.F. staffer

#5 OWNER - DIEROLPH FAMILY

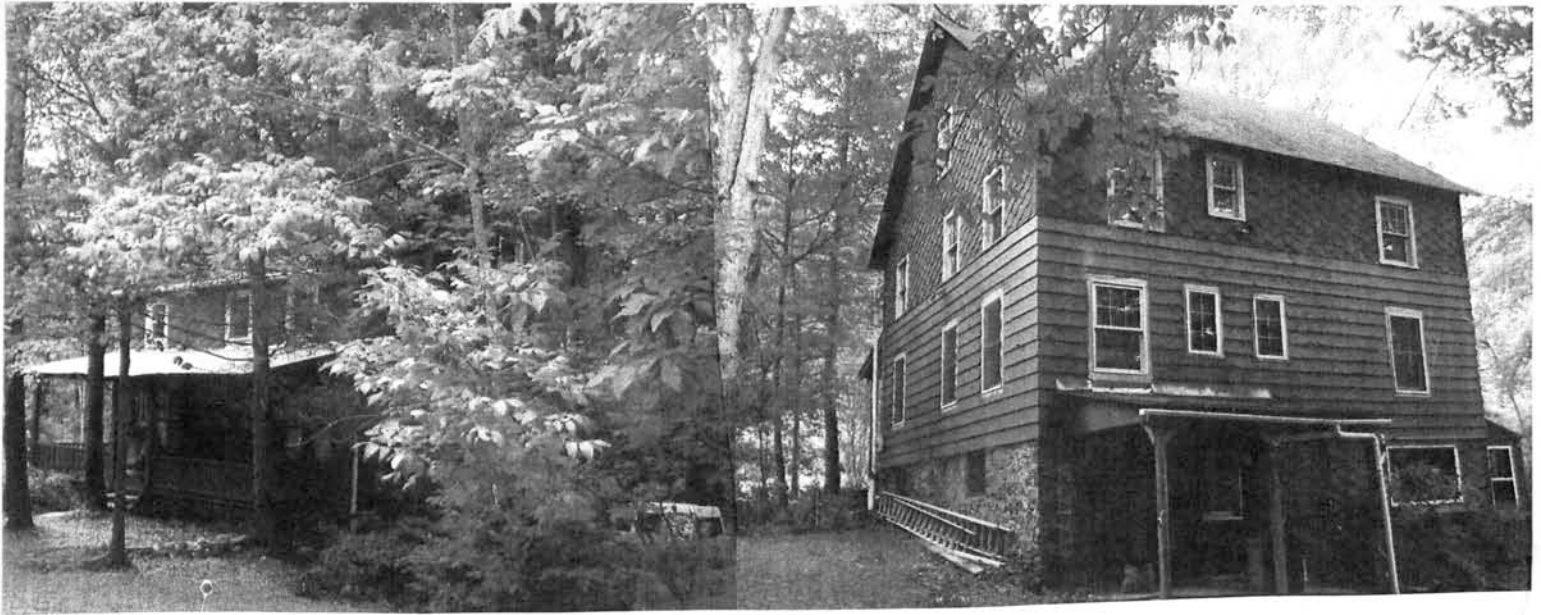

Names

Extended Dierolf Family

Berrybush is a unique cabin filled with rustic charm and is one of the oldest buildings in Paradise Falls. It is one of the 3 original barns on PF property and was converted to a cabin over 80 years ago. Many of the original fixtures still exist. The original 8x8 barn beams and barn board are visible in most of the cabin, and even though it is insulated with 3 zone LP hot water heat, and an updated electric system with 150 amp service, it has never been a house, it is definitely a cabin.

For our family and friends, the dining room on the first floor has always been the most popular room in the cabin and the gathering place for many large family breakfasts, cards and board games. The pellet stove keeps it warm and cozy in the winter months, and in the summer the room stays cool and comfortable. Because of the many trees on the property, the temperature inside stays temperate, but if you prefer it cooler, there is an AC unit in the living room capable of cooling the entire mid-floor, which consists of the living room, 3 bedrooms and 2 full bathrooms. There are also many built-in bookcases and several replacement (Anderson) windows and because of the unique construction, many of the walls are non-supported and could be easily moved.

My very favorite part of Berrybush has always been the attic. Just open the hatch to the most barn-like part of the cabin, which has been the best place to hang out on rainy days at PF. There is ample space for storage and lots of room to expand. Presently, it contains a full bathroom with an extra long tub on legs, 2 bedrooms and a loft, and the attic is where the original exposed notched and pegged beams in the barn are most visible. In the fall and winter months, there is a great view of the lake from the back window. At present the attic also houses a large Lionel train lay-out.

The entrance to Berrybush is on RT 191 and there is a driveway that leads to Beach Rd, and its a short walk to the beach. The backyard has hosted many fun gatherings and picnics, where we have enjoyed evenings around the campfire telling PF tales. Due to health issues, it hasn't been as easy for us to make the 6 hr drive for upkeep, maintenance or even to spend much time there. Its time to let go of an old friend.

We are asking $72,000.00, negotiable on what items/furniture etc remain. We could include gardening tools, kitchen supplies and furniture items. The 500 gallon LP gas tank is owned by us and is included. Please contact Steve Dierolf 412-780-9188 if interested or with any questions.
